This is the final conference for the North West Regional Research Framework for the Historic Environment and will be hosted by the University of Salford and the CBA North West.

This Conference forms the final part of a series of workshops to aid the update to the North West Regional Research Framework. This project has been facilitated by the University of Salford on behalf of Historic England, ALGAO and the CBA North West and has sought to update the resource assessment and research questions, based on 11 years of investigations since the previous framework was published.

The conference will present the new research framework format, and then use case studies of recent archaeological projects to illustrate this. It will finish with a look at the way forward including the Wiki platform being developed by Historic England and the proposed publications.

This conference will be held at the Old Fire Station, University of Salford, The Crescent, Salford M5 4NZ. This will be hosted by the University of Salford alongside the CBA North West. (see map for details)
